Night. And there was evening and there was morning, one day. {P}

46381 פ 1182 the פ (Hebrew letter peh) stands for the Hebrew word "petuchah", that is, "open". That indicates that the end of the section must be indicated by leaving the entire rest of the line blank. If there is one פthere must be at least four letter spaces left blank, and if there are three, then at least twelve letter spaces must be left blank. There is no difference between Sephardim and Ashkenazim as to the meaning ofthese symbols.
